

November 9, 2009

Dear Parents,

Having only eight full days of school and three half days of school until Thanksgiving, we will be completing one reading unit over the course of the next two weeks. The spelling test and reading selection test will be on Friday, November 20th.

Throughout the next two weeks we will also be working on using the writing process for completing a personal narrative. I have explained to the students that if we take "baby steps" each day they will be successful with this and actually enjoy it! Our class is also leading the prayer service on Monday, November 16th if you would like to join us in prayer we would love to have you here! In Math we are adding two digit numbers with carrying a one into the tens place. On November 19th, in Social Studies, there will be a quiz on labeling the continents and oceans on a map of the world. The students have a map to study in their binder. They will also be quizzed on knowing "where TCS is on this planet". They need to know planet, continent, country, state, and village where TCS is located.

You should have received a conference form telling you the date and time of our conference. If you did not receive one please let me know.

On early dismissal days, 11/13, 11/16, and 11/17 we will not be having snack because we eat an earlier lunch on those days. Dismissal is at 11:15 on early dismissal days. Also, November 18th is picture retake day.

I know these next few weeks will go by quickly so I want to take the opportunity now to wish you a very Happy and Blessed Thanksgiving. I look forward to seeing you at our conference.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Marsh
