

February 8, 2010

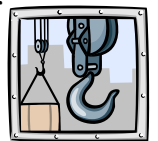

Dear Parents,

Happy Catholic School's Week and thank you for being a part of the Trinity Family. Without the sacrifices you make, we would not be the wonderful school that we are! On Wednesday, we are "Dressing for Success". I have explained to the students that they may dress in whatever they are interested in becoming when they are older; what they would like to succeed at or become successful at doing. On Thursday evening we have the Spaghetti Supper and the Poetry Speak-Out. The children did a wonderful job reciting their poems; however, we could only choose one class representative. After narrowing it down to four students, having a second "round" of reciting their poems, and a class vote, Toby Reome was chosen to represent our class at the Speak-Out. Congratulations to all the children for their efforts!

On Friday morning we will be having our Valentine's Day celebration. The children have a list of their classmates' names and they will be exchanging cards on Friday. We are celebrating in the morning because of the Trinity Variety show taking place in the afternoon. You may be receiving a phone call to help with the Valentine's celebration because we will be having different snack items than originally planned. Thank you in advance to those who will be helping.

This week we will not be having a spelling list and we are finishing up with the skills from last week's unit in Reading. On Thursday there will be a Science Test on Simple machines. The children have various notes in their binder to study and they will be coming home each day for them to review prior to the test.

I hope everyone has a safe and relaxing vacation. Try to have the children get out and enjoy some of God's winter wonder, creations, and fresh air!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Marsh

