BIRTHDAYS

March

3/13—Courtney Wilson

3/17—Patrick Ryan

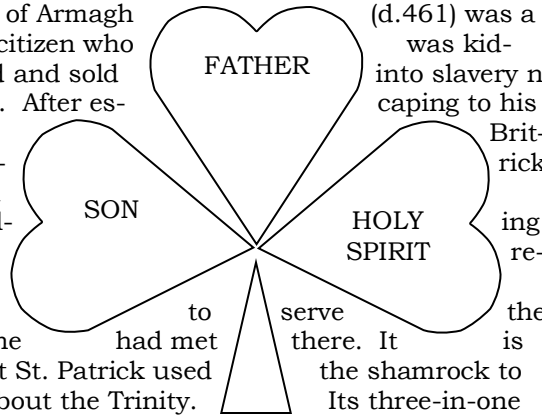

◇We have been having recess outside on the parking lot between the two buildings and this seems to be working out nicely. The children do not need boots or ski pants any longer. It is however still a bit chilly and they should therefore come dressed with a winter coat,

ST. PATRICK

Bishop of Armagh Roman citizen who napped and sold Ireland. After es- native ain, Pat- heard a voice tell- him to return to Ireland people he had met said that St. Patrick used to teach about the Trinity. Its three-in-one leaves symbolize Father, Son and Holy Spirit in one Supreme Being. The Irish people knew intuitively that God is present in all creation, and St. Patrick showed them that, in the mystery of the Holy Trinity, God was beyond all of creation as well.

Chase Sheehan— Courtney's cousin who was severely burned.

Our new virtue for March/April is Trustworthiness. Students who are Disciples in Action who are trustworthy are those who always do what is asked, tell the truth even when they have done something wrong, helpful without being asked, etc. Congratulations to Courtney Wilson for being this week's Disciple in Action.
