◇We are in our 5th Week of Unit 3 in reading and one that will prove to one of the most challenging for the boys and girls. We will be focusing on "R" controlled vowels. These include er, ir, and ur. We covered ar last week and the students responded well to this "pirate" sound, ar mate. Er, ir and ur all say the same sound and it will mainly be a matter of memorization and deciding which one looks right when spelling the word. We are confident that with both school and home practice these fine students will master this concept as they have many in the past. Keep up the good work boys, girls and parents!

◇Next week will be a 4 day week and we will be finishing Unit 3 in Reading. We will break for Easter and have a 3 day week before spring break. That week will be dedicated to the Unit 3 Exam.

◇Don't forget to work on those drawings for the Bike Rally T-shirt design.

◇Just over a week left in our Chocolate Bar Sales.
