Next week is a short week and there will not be a note coming home on Tuesday. We will however be starting Week 5—An Egg is an Egg immediately after vacation. We will finish Unit 1 before Christmas vacation and administer Unit 1 test. We will be picking up the pace during December and the kids will become somewhat acclimated to having the reading in one week versus two.

When we return from vacation, we need to be prepared for outdoor recess. No doubt the weather will be significantly colder therefore hats, mittens and winter coats will be a must. Depending on the snow condition, students may be in need of winter boots and ski pants. Please send your child prepared!

We will send home Christmas party information after break.
